FEEDING MANY

Work of the United Chinese Society.

A Large Fund Already Raised to Take Care of Destitute Celestials.

So noiselessly have the Chinese gone about the business of caring for their own in the past week that few other than those generous Honoluluans who have opened their purses for the homeless Asiatics, know the extent of the charity the United Chinese Society has undertaken. About a thousand men, women and children, of celestial birth or parentage are now wards of this society and twice a week receive the supplies of rice that keep them alive. Headquarters have been established at the society's rooms on King near Nuuanu street and here the food is doled out by volunteers in the work.

A large fund has been already raised to continue the charity and it is supposed that it will be weeks before the unfortunates are in a condition to be self-supporting. To Consul Young Wei Pin and Vice-Consul Goo Kim Ful is due the credit for the initiation of the plan to avert starvation among their many countrymen ruined by the China-town fire and the business depression incidental to the quarantine.

A week ago the first meeting was called by these gentlemen at which Yee Chan was elected chairman, and Yim Quon treasurer of the fund to be raised. Ten committeemen were appointed to solicit donations and twenty-four others to take active charge of the supplying of the rice to applicants. Besides giving the rice, shelter in the Kalihi detention camp is found for those who have none, through the courtesy of Minister of the Interior Young. Subscriptions to the cause have been liberal both among Orientals and whites. The following is a partial list of these: H. Hackfeld & Co., $500; W. G. Irwin & Co., $500; Claus Spreckels & Co., $500; Alexander & Baldwin, $500; Bishop & Co., $500; Castle & Cooke, $500; Sing Chong Company, $1000; C. M. and C. A. Cooke, $500; Young Wei Pin, Chinese Consul, $1000; Alfred S. Hartwell, $1000; Theo. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., $500; Allen & Robinson, $250; Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., $250; F. A. Schaefer & Co., $250; John Ena, $50.

Bobs vs. Barros.

The Bobs family and the family of Barros are neighbors at Kakaako. The children of the respective families do not live in that state of brotherly love that it is desired should predominate according to the best authorities. All on account of the bickerings of the offspring of the Bobs family and those of the family of Barros, the law has been invoked.

Last evening Barros went into the Bobs' yard and started to chastise Bobs' children. Mrs. Bobs made her appearance on the scene and Barros, whose blood was up, started in to do her bodily violence. Mrs. Bobs is of German extraction and concluded that things were a little one-sided; so she caused Barros to beat a retreat. He hunted up a lawyer and a warrant was sworn out and served upon Mrs. Bobs. The complaining witness, Barros, is a big, strapping fellow and Mrs. Bobs is quite small. Mrs. Bobs' face showed the effects of having come in contact with something hard. She claimed the man had struck her with his fist. Judge Wilcox will straighten things out this morning.

Want to Go Steerage.

Some ninety passengers who want to go to San Francisco by steerage and have been refused by the Oceanic Steamship Company unless they go through a strict fifteen days' quarantine, are protesting vigorously against the company's action. Manager Giffard of the company states its willingness to take the steerage passengers if they comply with the United States laws and Dr. Carmichael says that under them steerage passengers' quarantine must be absolute while cabin passengers are allowed the more lax inspection.

Remarkable Cures of Rheumatism.

From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, North Carolina.
The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the ointment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

Rhinebeck-on-the-Hudson is to have a palace that will make the other buildings in that vicinity look like cottages. It is to be put up by Colonel John Jacob Astor, and will be erected on the site of Ferncliffe, which will be razed to the ground to make way for the magnificent structure Colonel Astor has in mind.
